EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

In claim 1, line 1, "of plurality of wireless microphone" has been changed to --
of a plurality of wireless microphones--.

The drawings filed on 8/29/05 are acceptable subject to correction of the following informalities: Lines are not uniform and lettering is not clear and of uniform size. In order to avoid abandonment of this application, correction is required in reply to the Office action. The correction will not be held in abeyance.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present invention is directed to an arrangement of wireless microphones with multicolor indicators. Independent claims 1 and 6 identify the uniquely distinct feature of a switching device inside the wireless microphones in an arrangement of a plurality of microphones to change the color of a color display to differentiate one microphone from other microphones in combination with all the disclosed limitations of claims 1 and 6. The closest prior art, Everett (US 6690804) teaches a microphone with a colored LED in the cable of a wired microphone to distinguish it from other microphones in the area but fails to teach a multiple of colors available in the microphone itself and a switching device for changing the color and Fuminori (JP 2001-289675) teaches a wireless microphone with two LEDs to indicate power is applied and modulation status of the microphone. The prior art fails to anticipate or render the independent claims obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
